

Examination topics for the Undergraduate Programme in International Relations

(applies to foreign nationals who hold a foreign document entitling them to undertake studies, issued in a country that is not a member of the EU, EFTA, or OECD, and not covered by the provisions of an international agreement)

1. What is your understanding of “international relations”?
2. Who are the major actors in contemporary international relations?
3. What is public international law?
4. What was the League of Nations?
5. What is the United Nations?
6. What is the United Nations Security Council?
7. What is the United Nations General Assembly?
8. What is the International Court of Justice?
9. What is the International Criminal Court?
10. Are there any ongoing military conflicts in Africa/Europe/Middle East now? If so, choose one and present the details. (the question will be asked about one of these regions)
11. What is your understanding of the term “climate crisis”?
12. What are the Millennium Development Goals and Sustainable Development Goals?
13. What are, according to you, the most important political and civil human rights?
14. What are, according to you, the most important economic human rights?
15. What was the Cold War about? When and how did it start? Has it ended? If so - when and why?
16. How would you define a “state”?
17. What is your understanding of the international liberal order?
18. What are the principal institutions of the European Union?
19. What was the role of the Peace of Westphalia in the development of the contemporary international order?
20. What do you understand by “colonisation” and “decolonisation” (in terms of international relations)?
- 17 Are there any remaining colonial territories in the contemporary world?

The exam will last approximately 15 minutes

