

Here are specific questions which will be asked during the interview.

1. The history of sustainable development

What do you know about Agenda 2030?

Could you provide some examples of any important international commitments towards achieving sustainability other than Agenda 2030?

2. How do we measure progress

The 17 Sustainable Development Goals of the Agenda 2030 along with a related set of targeted measures are specific indicators of progress in achieving Agenda 2030. Could you provide an example of any specific target set up in relation to 17 SDGs?

Could you provide any examples of a specific methodology or indicator for monitoring progress in achieving sustainability?

3. The sustainable development goals SDGs

What do you know about Sustainable Development Goals?

Which SDGs, in your opinion, are particularly important in achieving progress towards sustainability in the World?

4. Social Inclusion

Which SDG contributes the most towards social inclusion?

Could you provide any examples of problems and barriers in achieving social inclusion in your country?

5. Education for All

Which SDG contributes the most to the achievement of good quality education for all?

Could you provide examples of activities which can contribute to the achievement of good quality education?

6. Health for All

Which SDG contributes the most to the achievement of good health and well-being?

Could you provide examples of activities which can contribute to the achievement of good health and well-being?

7. Food Security

Which SDG contributes the most to the achievement of food security?

Could you explain the relationships between food security and environmental changes?

8. Planetary boundaries and biodiversity

What are the most alarming symptoms of biodiversity loss? How is this connected with sustainability?

How can you contribute to protecting biodiversity?

9. Capital approach to sustainable development

How do you understand the term “Capital”. Could you explain what can be considered “capital” in achieving sustainability?

How do you understand the statement “Culture is a driver and enabler of sustainable development and essential for achieving the 2030 Agenda”? Can culture be considered capital?

10. The role of institutions in building frameworks to measure sustainable development

What institutions on the highest level are responsible for measuring progress in achieving SDGs?

What institution in your country is responsible for measuring progress in achieving sustainability?

11. Climate change

Which SDG contributes the most taking action towards climate protection?

What are the most alarming symptoms of climate changes? How is this connected with sustainability?

12. Sustainable transport

How do you understand the term “sustainable transport”?

Could you provide examples of systemic (big scale) solutions which contribute towards sustainable transport?

To find the answers to the above questions candidates may look through the following resources:

on-line publication: UNESCO moving forward the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

<https://unesdoc.unesco.org/ark:/48223/pf0000247785>

website: SDGs Knowledge Platform

<https://sustainabledevelopment.un.org/topics>