

EXAMINATION TOPICS FOR THE GRADUATE PROGRAMME IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

- The concept and understanding of politics
- Political communication
- Political culture
- The concept and theories of democracy
- The concept and theories of state
- Non-democratic political regimes
- The concept of political system
- Political participation
- Political elections
- Political campaigns
- Political parties and social movements
- Party systems
- The concept of civil society

The oral examination will be centred around three topics selected from the list above by the examination committee. Topics listed above should be treated as guiding themes of the discussion. In the preparation ahead of the examination, it is recommended to focus on overarching broad understanding of those topics.

The exam will last approximately 15-20 minutes.